The Vienna Vis Moot –Insights from the World’s Largest Student Arbitration Competition

The Willem C. Vis Commercial Arbitration Moot Competition, is a student competition which takes place each year in spring in Vienna, Austria. In 2018 the 25th “Vienna Vis Moot” involved 357 teams and altogether approximately 4,000 participants of over 110 nationalities, comprised of over 2,000 students, over 1,200 arbitrators, as well as coaches, readers and administrative staff

Dr. Nikolaus Pitkowicz, Vice President of VIAC (Vienna International Arbitral Centre), one of the organizers of the Vienna Vis Moot and a leading Austrian arbitration practitioner has been very actively involved in the Vis Moot for many years. He will give insights on the Vienna Vis and explain why so many law students find this the most rewarding experience in their curriculum.
